

Josef & Lynette Sykora
FREE METHODIST MISSIONS—SLOVAKIA

Josef is now an ordained minister in the Cirkev Bratska church where he disciples, preaches, and works with youth, including a university group. He is also teaching for the Free Methodist Mission in Europe and pursuing a Ph.D. Lynette helps with a Mom's & Tot's group in the local church.

She continues to work in member care for Free Methodist missionaries in Europe and is counseling locally in Bratislava as well. Their boys are a joy and keep them busy: Simon is 2 1/2 years and Luke is 5 months.

Chris & Yuko Wilkins
FREE METHODIST MISSIONS—CAMBODIA

The Wilkins (and sons Caleb and Cory) are missionaries in Cambodia, where Chris pastors the Phnom Penh Church and serves as field supervisor for the Free Methodist Cambodia ministry. Yuko works with finances for both U.S. and Asia Pacific Free Methodist Missions Association missionaries serving throughout Asia. She also develops new products for Reaksmei, the Cambodian Free Methodist development group.

PEARCE MISSIONARY UPDATES
October 2009

Al & Stacy Anderson YOUNG LIFE—CZECH REPUBLIC

This year has been exciting as Al and Stacy have seen teens come to know Christ, their ministry expand, and more Czechs step up into leadership. In September Ota Kanok became the Area Director in Ostrava and they anticipate great things as God continues to grow this ministry under the leadership of a Czech national. Al's new role is the Area Developer of Czech Republic, Poland, and Slovakia. In addition to developing ministry to teens in Ostrava and Prague, the Andersons look forward to developing contacts and ministry in new places so more teens will have the opportunity to hear the great news of Jesus Christ

J.R. & Becky Crouse FREE METHODIST MISSIONS—PERU

“Blessing” and “transition” are two words that could sum up 2009 for the Crouse family. Blessing comes from witnessing the fruit born out of ministry in discipleship, micro-enterprise development, and the ministry of several teams from the U.S. in Peru during the first half of 2009. And the Crouses have been blessed, even during the challenge of transition from life in Peru to life in the U.S. while connecting with ministry partners during the last half of 2009. The Crouse family (including daughters Marissa and Alena) thank the Lord for His grace to navigate the changes required.

Jack & Jeanne Munos FREE METHODIST MISSIONS—HAITI

Jack and Jeanne are back in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, after spending two and a half months at the Pearce mission house. Classes for second-year students have begun at Institut Biblique Méthodiste Libre, where Jack teaches Spiritual Formation and Jeanne teaches Christian Education. The Munoses have visited several churches to preach and encourage the pastors and people, plus they have evaluated churches and schools that are in various stages of development and need.

Terry & Robbie Mason AIM INTERNATIONAL—BRISTOL, ENGLAND

The Masons are based at the AIM International Office, where Terry serves as Director of Personnel and Robbie is the Office Administrator. Terry oversees all of AIM's recruitment, training, and member care worldwide. AIM has around 900 full-time missionaries in 20 African nations and sends out more than 400 short-term workers each year. Their goal is to see Christ-centered churches established among all African peoples by reaching the unreached and training national church leaders.

Dr. Delia Nuesch-Oliver FREE METHODIST LATIN AMERICAN MINISTRIES AREA DIRECTOR

Rev. Dr. Delia Nüesch-Oliver serves as the appointed Free Methodist director for Latin America and Hispanic-speaking people around the world. Her ministry includes training, coaching, coordinating annual meetings, and encouraging our missionaries and national leaders. She grew up in Argentina and is strategically launching ministries in the metro areas of South America. The Genesis Conference churches of Rochester Edgewood, Fredonia, and Pearce are serving as some of her financial and prayer partners.
